Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

Jesus Christ is the great Lord who can command storms and control the wind. His power over natural elements is a sign of how his love triumphs over the evil that attacks our bodies and spirits.

About Today's Bible Readings:

JOB 38:1, 8-11

The book of Job is an ancient novel that dramatically depicts the human condition. The universe in which we live shadows forth the creator to whom we owe our lives.

PSALM 107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:14-17

Paul proclaims the conviction that motivates all he says and does: Christ died for all that all might live for him.

MARK 4:35-41

A storm at sea provides the occasion for a manifestation of Jesus' power and a tantalizing revelation of his identity.

ENTRANCE RITE

V. God is our refuge and our strength, an ever-present help in distress. Therefore, we fear not, though the earth be shaken and mountains plunge into the depths of the sea; though its waters rage and foam.

R. For He is the living God, enduring forever; His kingdom shall not be destroyed, and His dominion shall be without end.

V. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen!

THE GOSPEL (MARK 4:35-41)

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

This is the Gospel of the Lord
