TODAY'S READINGS

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH

The Lord said to me: You are my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory. Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him and Israel gathered to him; and I am made glorious in the sight of the Lord, and my God is now my strength! It is too little, the Lord says, for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel, I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

THE GRADUAL

PREIST - Thus says the Lord: In a time of favor I answer you, on the day of salvation I help you, to restore the land and allot the desolate heritages;

PEOPLE - Saying to the prisoners: Come out! To those in darkness: Show yourselves!

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF ST. PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

+ A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN +

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel." John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

The Polish National Catholic Church has a long a beautiful history of fostering worthy music for her liturgical celebrations, especially during that which is the foundation of our spiritual lives. That is the Liturgy of the Mass. Every year scholarships are awarded to our church's budding musicians in order to foster this rich tradition of sacred music for future generations of the faithful. It is on this Sunday (next Sunday) that the MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP COLLECTION will be taken up in all of our churches. Please be as generous as you can.

LITURGICAL NOTES:

As the strains of carols can still be heard, the Church reminds us through the readings of the next few Sundays as to why the Holy Babe of Bethlehem was born in such low estate and what His mission would be among men.

And so we hear the words of St. John the Baptist again reverberating through the valleys and hills of ancient Israel, proclaiming the truth about 'the Man called Jesus.' 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me, says John,...I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him...he is the One who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'

Yes, it is now that Our Lord prepares for His mission here among mere mortal men...to heal the sick and the broken hearted...to bring peace to the warring, and to go the road of suffering and death for the REDEMPTION OF MANKIND. Soon the rough wood of the manger will be transformed into the unforgiving wood of the cross. For this Jesus came, to offer the ultimate sacrifice of His very person, perfect in every way, for sinful, mortal beings such as you and me.

+GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST! AND PEACE TO MEN OF GOOD WILL! +
