TODAY'S READINGS:

A READING FROM THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

THE GRADUAL:

PRIEST - Therefore, wait for me, says the Lord. For then I will change and purify the lips of the peoples. Alleluia.

PEOPLE - That they all may call upon the Name of the Lord, to serve Him with one accord. Alleluia.

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF ST. PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

READER - THIS IS THE WORD OF THE LORD. PEOPLE - THANKS BE TO GOD.

+ A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN +

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you. When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

PRIEST - THIS IS THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD!

PEOPLE - PRAISE BE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST!

LITURGICAL NOTES - WHAT IS A LITURGICAL OCTAVE? The term is taken from the Latin word "octo" meaning "eight" or "octavus" meaning "eighth". In our Church's liturgical calendar some Solemnities are considered to be so important in the truths they convey, that they are celebrated for eight days in succession. Such it is for the Solemnity of Pentecost. You will notice by the week's liturgical schedule of Masses, that the joyous mystery of the sending of the Holy Spirit and His manifold gifts upon the fledgling Church, will be celebrated for eight consecutive days, superseding any other liturgical commemorations and ending with the celebration of the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity on next Sunday. These Masses are referred to as "Masses of the Octave."
