TODAY'S READINGS:

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

Moses said to the people: "If only you would heed the voice of the Lord, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the Lord, your God, with all your heart and all your soul. "For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, "Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?" No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

THE GRADUAL

PRIEST - Glory in His holy name; rejoice, O hearts that seek the Lord!

PEOPLE - Rely on the mighty Lord; constantly seek His face.

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF ST. PAUL TO THE COLOSSIANS

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions of principalities or powers: all things are created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the Body, the Church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

+ A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE +

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, 'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your hearts, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.' He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers; victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

We welcome the Pandos family, William (Bill), Debra, William (Billy) and Brooke, as new members to our parish family. May God bless their family as their presence blesses us. A HEARTFELT WELCOME TO OUR SAVIOUR PARISH!

It is vacation time and as we all know and the weather is very summer-like. We ask you to remember to be generous during this season to Our Savior Parish as bills and expenses, (as we all know), keep coming whether it is vacation season or not. Because of your generosity and self-sacrifice, the parish is able to keep its doors open in order to serve Christ and His Gospel. It is our prayer that we may grow in this mission. Thank you for your generosity.
