TODAY'S READINGS

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF SIRACH

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God. What is too sublime for you, seek not, into things beyond your strength search not. The mind of a sage appreciates proverbs, and an attentive ear is the joy of the wise. Water quenches a flaming fire, and aims atone for sins.

THE GRADUAL

PRIEST - For thus said the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel; By waiting and by calm you shall be saved, in quiet and in trust your strength lies.

PEOPLE - Lord, Father and God of my life, abandon me not into their control.

A READING FROM THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

Brothers and sisters: You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them. No, you have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and countless angels in festal gathering, and the assembly of the firstborn enrolled in heaven, and God the judge of all, and the spirits of the just made perfect, and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

+ A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE+

ON A SABBATH JESUS went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully. He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Today's second collection is taken up for the Missions of our Church.

The Parish Committee meeting usually held on the first Sunday of the month, will be held instead next week, September 8, 2013 immediately following the 9:00AM Mass.

We are always looking to deepen our understanding of our Church in all of its facets. One of the areas which should be of interest to all, is the area of constitutional precepts by which the governance of the Church is conducted, both at the hierarchical and lay levels. With this in mind, copies of the CONSTITUTION OF THE POLISH NATIONAL CATHOLIC CHURCH are available at the entryway of the Church. They come at a cost of $3 per copy from our National Church Center. Every member of our church, especially members of the Parish Committee, should not only own a copy, but should study it for a deeper understanding of the complimentary roles of service all members of the Church play in furthering the work of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Please take a copy today.
