TODAY'S READINGS

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF EXODUS

In those days, Amalek came and waged war against Israel. Moses, therefore, said to Joshua, "Pick out certain men, and tomorrow go out and engage Amalek in battle. I will be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand." So Joshua did as Moses told him: he engaged Amalek in battle after Moses had climbed to the top of the hill with Aaron and Hur. As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the better of the fight. Moses' hands, however, grew tired; so they put a rock in place for him to sit on. Meanwile Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other, so that his hands remained steady till sunset. And Joshua mowed down Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

THE GRADUAL

PRIEST - With all prayer and supplication, pray at every opportunity in the Spirit.

PEOPLE - To that end, be watchful with all perseverance and supplication for all the holy ones.

A READING FROM THE SECOND LETTER OF ST. PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Beloved: Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it, and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work. I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.

+ A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE +

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary. He said, "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.' For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'" The Lord said, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says. Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

The MISSION FUND collection (a second collection) is normally taken up on the first Sunday of each month. It was missed on the first Sunday of October and therefore will be taken up today.

Our Savior Parish ANNUAL THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE will begin next week. All non-perishable food items are welcome. The food is donated to our local food bank. It is important to note that all food banks are experiencing shortages as difficult economic times put more pressure than ever on the needy. So please be generous. The response from our parishioners last year was nothing less than tremendous!

UPCOMING EVENTS - Our parish will be hosting the fall meeting of the Philadelphia Seniorate of the Polish National Catholic Church on Saturday, Oct. 26, 2013. Many thanks especially to our ANS ladies who are making special preparations to host this important event in the life of our Church.
