TODAY'S READINGS:

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF SIRACH

The Lord is a God of justice, who knows no favorites. Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed. The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.

THE GRADUAL

PRIEST - To keep the law is a great oblation, and he who observes the commandments sacrifices a peace offering.

PEOPLE - In works of charity one offers fine flour, and when he gives alms he presents his sacrifice of praise.

A READING FROM THE SECOND LETTER OF ST. PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Beloved: I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance. At my first defense no one appeared on my behalf, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

+ A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE +

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. "Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity...greedy, dishonest, adulterous...or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.' But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former' for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Many thanks to all who prepared for our parish's hosting of the bi-annual meeting of our Seniorate. Special thanks to our parish ANS members for their preparations and the beautiful luncheon they served. A fine time was had by all.

The annual All Souls blessing of graves at our cemetery will take place on Sunday Nov. 3rd at 2:00P.M. All are invited to attend.

Please refer to the Mass schedule for All Saints and All Souls Day Masses. Tradition dictates that the priest celebrates three (3) Masses for the faithful departed on All Souls (Nov. 2nd). Please try to attend one of them to pray for your deceased loved ones.

All Souls day envelopes for "wypominki" are provided with today's bulletin. Please return your intentions to be remembered during the month of November to the collection basket or to Peggy Kowalik.
