Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

Our God does not deceive us. Everything he has promised, he gives us in Jesus Christ. But God goes beyond his word to prove, through abundant gifts, the infinite extent of his divine mercy.

About Today's Bible Readings:

JEREMIAH 23:1-6

Through the prophet, the Lord condemns leaders who divide the people. Therefore, God himself will shepherd his own.

PSALM 23:1-3, 3-4, 5, 6

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

EPHESIANS 2:13-18

What was once separate and selfish, burnt and blasted has been restored and united in Christ Jesus.

MARK 6:30-34

In Jesus, the people sense the answer to their needs. He does not disappoint them. In his teaching, he begins to reveal the face of God.

ENTRANCE RITE

V. Two things I ask of You, deny them not to me before I die:

R. Put falsehood and lying far from me, give me neither poverty nor riches; provide me only with the food I need.

V. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen!

THE GOSPEL (MARK 6:30-34)

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

PRAY FOR PEACE

The senseless act of violence that occurred in Tennessee last week reminds us all of the need to continue to pray for peace in our time. Please, when you pray to our Lord, ask Him to fill the hearts of all of His people with love, understanding and tolerance for others. Pray that people of all faiths will find a path to peace that does not include violence and terroristic acts. And pray for all of the dedicate men and women in the law enforcement and intelligence communities and those in the armed forces who work so hard, day and night to keep us safe from harm. May God bless them all and keep them safe.
