Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Happy
Independence Day!

A Sabbath Thought

We who believe may think we know Jesus - after all, we are family. But we must take care that familiarity does not blunt the impact of his message or the effect of his grace.

About Today's Bible Readings:

EZEKIEL 2:2-5

Even when the people rebel, God does not desert them. He sends them a prophet to preach repentance.

PSALM 123:1-2, 2, 3-4

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

2 CORINTHIANS 12:7-10

In his own person, Paul experiences the paradox of salvation: when he is weak, there is room for God's power to work at full force.

MARK 6:1-6

In his own hometown, Jesus discovers that his neighbors know him too well. Familiarity blinds them to his true identity.

ENTRANCE RITE

V. Ah! sinful nation, people laden with wickedness, evil race, corrupt children! They have forsaken the Lord, spurned the Holy One of Israel, apostatized.

R. The Lord is with you when you are with Him, and if you seek Him, He will be present to you; but if you abandon Him, He will abandon you.

V. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen!

THE GOSPEL (MARK 6:1-6)

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples. When the Sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Happy Birthday America!

We live in the greatest country that has ever existed on this planet. Let us take just a moment out of our celebrations and partying this weekend to thank God for this incredible blessing and to vow that we will never forget all of those who made it possible for us to enjoy the liberty and the freedom that America guarantees to all who come to her in thankful prayer.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

America the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!

America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O Beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!

America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!
