Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

Selective vision is the occupational hazard of being human. We tend to overlook people, thus fulfilling the proverb, "Out of sight, out of mind." Also, out of heart - because we cannot love those we cannot see.

About Today's Bible Readings:

1 KINGS 17:10-16

A widow's generosity does not go unrewarded. She gives out of her poverty and receives unexpected returns.

PSALM 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

HEBREWS 9:24-28

This selection establishes the mood for us as we approach the end of the church year. Jesus, our great high priest, has redeemed us and we now look to his coming the second time.

MARK 12:38-44

A poor widow, victim of the rapacious, demonstrates the true meaning of generosity.

ENTRANCE RITE

V. Dispose of your treasure as the Most High commands, for that will profit you more than the gold. Store up almsgiving in your treasure house, and it will save you from every evil.

R. It is better to give alms than to store up gold; for Almsgiving saves one from death and expiates every sin.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL (MARK 12:38-44)

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds, "Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Thanksgiving Dinner

Our Annual Thanksgiving Dinner will be held today, November 8, 2015 in the church's fellowship hall. Please plan to join us for good food, Christian fellowship and thanksgiving for all of our many blessings.

Adults $12 – Children $3.

Prime Bishop Anthony Mikovsky to Visit Our Saviour Parish.

Next Sunday, November 15, 2015, I will be at Our Lord's Ascension Parish in Bethlehem, PA as my daughter Danielle will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation at the hands of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Bernard Nowicki. In my absence Holy Mass, with intentions for the repose of the soul of Mark Mechowski, will be celebrated by our Prime Bishop, the Most Rev. Anthony Mikovsky. Please plan to attend to welcome the Prime Bishop and to join in the celebration of the Holy Mass.

Veteran's Day

Wednesday is Veteran's Day. Please take time to honor the brave men and women who have served, who are serving, and who will serve our country in the armed services. Say a prayer for them and remember to say "Thank you" if you have the opportunity to do so face to face. We live in peace and freedom because of their courage and their sacrifice.

Please, do not forget it.
