Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord – During the Day

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

A Festival Thought

The profound mystery of the Word made flesh causes us to celebrate with joy every aspect of our redemption. Through Christ's birth, by Christ's death and in Christ's marvelous resurrection, we find ourselves saved!

About Today's Bible Readings:

ISAIAH 52:7-10

God's word of salvation for Israel meant freedom from exile, a return home, a chance to rebuild.

PSALM 98:1, 2-3, 3-4, 5-6

R. All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.

HEBREWS 1:1-16

God's word of salvation, first spoken through the prophets, became a living reality in the person and mission of Jesus Christ.

JOHN 2:1-18

God's word of salvation, finally made flesh in Jesus, is the source of our light, love and peace.

ENTRANCE RITE (Isaiah 9:6; Psalm 98:1a)

V. A Child has been born for us, a Son given to us; authority rests upon His shoulders; and He is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

R. Sing a new song to the Lord, Who has done marvelous deeds.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL (John 2:1-18)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be. What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, but his own people did not accept him. But to those who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in his name, who were born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God. And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth. John testified to him and cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'The one who is coming after me ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.'" From his fullness we have all received, grace in place of grace, because while the law was given through Moses, grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. The only Son, God, who is at the Father's side, has revealed him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord!
