Sexagesima – Pre-Lent

A Sabbath Thought

As we approach the beginning of Lent, we sit at the feet of Jesus, disciples eager to learn. This Sunday's Lesson: Love your enemies.

About Today's Bible Readings

1 SAMUEL 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

David, ancient hero of the people of God, stands as an emblem of the practical meaning of 'love of enemy'.

Responsorial Psalm:
103:1-2, 3-4, 8, 10, 12-13

R. The Lord is kind and merciful.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:45-49

Because of Jesus, we now straddle two worlds: the earth that is our origin, and the kingdom that is our destination.

LUKE 6:27-38

In this sermon to his disciples, Jesus turns into Johnny-One-Note: "Love," he says, and again, "love." To make sure he gets his point across, he repeats the same message in other words.

ENTRANCE RITE (ROMANS 12:20-21)

V. "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by doing so you will heap burning coals upon his head."

R. Do not be conquered by evil but conquer evil with good.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL (LUKE 6:27-38)

Jesus said to His disciples: "To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount. But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for He Himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as also your Father is merciful. "Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you."

This is the Gospel of the Lord!
