Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

Today's theme is the forgiveness of sins. Christ forgives all those who confess and repent their sins.

About Today's Bible Readings

2 Samuel 12:7-10, 13

David is chastised by Nathan for his reprehensible behavior in light of all that the Lord has done for him. But because he confesses and repents, he is forgiven

Responsorial Psalm: 32:1-2, 5, 7, 11

R. Lord, forgive the wrong I have done.

Galatians 2:16, 19-21

Paul exhorts us to seek justification and salvation not through the law but rather through faith in Christ Jesus.

Luke 7:36 – 8:3

Jesus forgives the woman's sins and explains to the Pharisee that all who love Him will find salvation and forgiveness in Him.

ENTRANCE RITE – Psalm 25:8-11

V. Good and upright is the Lord; thus He shows sinners the way. He guides the humble to justice, He teaches the humble His way. All the paths of the Lord are kindness and constancy toward those who keep His covenant and His decrees.

R. For Your name's sake, O Lord, You will pardon my guilt, as great as it is.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

THE GOSPEL – LUKE 7:36 - 8:3

A Pharisee invited Jesus to dine with him, and he entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at table. Now there was a sinful woman in the city who learned that he was at table in the house of the Pharisee. Bringing an alabaster flask of ointment, she stood behind him at his feet weeping and began to bathe his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them, and anointed them with the ointment. When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, that she is a sinner." Jesus said to him in reply, "Simon, I have something to say to you." "Tell me, teacher," he said. "Two people were in debt to a certain creditor; one owed five hundred days' wages and the other owed fifty. Since they were unable to repay the debt, he forgave it for both. Which of them will love him more?" Simon said in reply, "The one, I suppose, whose larger debt was forgiven." He said to him, "You have judged rightly."

Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? When I entered your house, you did not give me water for my feet, but she has bathed them with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You did not give me a kiss, but she has not ceased kissing my feet since the time I entered. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she anointed my feet with ointment. So I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven because she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little." He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." The others at table said to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" But he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Afterward he journeyed from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. Accompanying him were the Twelve and some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna, the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their resources.
