Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

The power of the Lord triumphs over everything. Even death cannot prevail against His Holy will.

About Today's Bible Readings

1 Kings 17:17-24

Elijah's faith in the Lord and his dedication to serving the Lord is rewarded. The Lord restores life to the widow's child.

Responsorial Psalm: 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Galatians 1:11-19

Paul recounts his life and his persecution of Christians before God reveals His son to Him. He is forever remade.

Luke 7:11-17

Jesus is moved by the widow's sorrow and raises her son from the dead. This is not a onetime occurrence. He will raise us all on the last day, as the Father raised Him.

ENTRANCE RITE – Psalm 18:5-7

V. The breakers of death surged round about me; the menacing floods terrified me. The cords of Sheol tightened; the snares of death lay in wait for me.

R. In my distress I called out: Lord! I cried out to my God. From His temple He heard my voice; my cry to Him reached His ears.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL – LUKE 7:11-17

Jesus journeyed to a city called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd accompanied him. As he drew near to the gate of the city, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was with her. When the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity for her and said to her, "Do not weep." He stepped forward and touched the coffin; at this the bearers halted, and he said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, crying out "A great prophet has arisen in our midst, and "God has visited his people." This report about him spread through the whole of Judea and in all the surrounding region.

This is the Gospel of the Lord!
