Solemnity – Transfiguration of the Lord

A Festival Thought

We are granted a momentary view of the glory waiting for us when we meet Jesus. Although mountain top experiences are uplifting, perhaps even necessary to give us hope, it is in the valley where we will find our most beneficial growth.

About Today's Bible Readings

DANIEL 7:9-10, 13-14

The "Ancient One" gazes down from a heavenly throne. One like a human, later to be seen as Jesus, the Christ, comes before the throne.

Responsorial Psalm: 97:1-2, 5-6, 9

R. The Lord is king, the Most High over all the earth.

2 PETER 1:16-19

Peter was blessed to glimpse the heavenly glory that was to be awarded Jesus. He recounts his experience of the transfiguration.

LUKE 9:28b - 36

Peter, James and John are privileged to accompany Jesus to the mountain top and to glimpse the glory of his resurrection.

ENTRANCE RITE – 1 John 3:22; Corinthians 3:18

V. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

R. All of us, gazing with unveiled face on the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, as from the Lord Who is the Spirit.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL – LUKE 9:28b - 36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up a mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

This is the Gospel of the Lord!
