Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

Firm and fast guidelines would give us emotional security in discerning God's presence. But the Lord is all around us. How can we ignore him? It is better to be always hospitable than sometimes neglectful.

About Today's Bible Readings

2 KINGS 4:8-11,14-16a

Hospitality given in God's Name earns a reward, but sometimes the outcome is unexpected.

Responsorial Psalm: 89:2-3, 16-17, 18-19

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

ROMANS 6:3-4, 8-11

We are so closely identified with Christ in baptism then even now we live his risen life: dead to sin but alive for God.

MATTHEW 10:37-42

The cross of Jesus opposes all self-seeking. All those who follow the Lord must first think of others, not of themselves.

ENTRANCE RITE: John 13:20; Romans 15:7

V. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever receives the One I send receives Me, and whoever receives Me receives the One Who sent Me.

R. Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles:

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.

Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.

And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

This is the Gospel of the Lord!

The Fourth of July

As we prepare to celebrate the two hundred forty first birthday of the greatest nation on God's Earth, let us pause to give thanks to Our Lord for this incredible gift of freedom and ask Him to bless it with peace and security. And don't forget to say a prayer for all those who give of themselves every day to keep us safe and sound, especially those in the armed forces and our brave first responders.
