Twenty-Sixth Sunday Ordinary Time

---

A Sabbath Thought

Among us human beings, reputation is one thing, results is another. In the eyes of God, who we are depends on what we do, both publicly and privately.

About Today's Bible Readings

EZEKIEL 18:25-28

There is a basic logic to God's justice. The Lord meets in mercy the human beings who truthfully confess their evil.

Responsorial Psalm: 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

PHILIPPIANS 2:1-11

Jesus is Lord - in spite of everything; indeed, because of everything. We must honor him.

MATTHEW 21:28-32

Words and deeds - moral theologians may argue about the balance between the two, but Jesus is interested only in results.

ENTRANCE RITE – Hebrews 13:20a, 21

V. May the God of peace, furnish you with all that is good, that you may do His will.

R. May He carry out in you what is pleasing to Him through Jesus Christ, to Whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL – Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people:

"What is your opinion?

A man had two sons.

He came to the first and said,

'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.'

He said in reply, 'I will not, '

but afterwards changed his mind and went.

The man came to the other son and gave the same order.

He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, 'but did not go.

Which of the two did his father's will?"

They answered, "The first."

Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you,

tax collectors and prostitutes

are entering the kingdom of God before you.

When John came to you in the way of righteousness,

you did not believe him;

but tax collectors and prostitutes did.

Yet even when you saw that,

you did not later change your minds and believe him."
