Twenty-Ninth Sunday Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

God is present and active in our world. Beyond the stories that make the news, behind the events recorded as history, God fashions the course of time to bring us to the kingdom. The Lord is always the ultimate authority.

About Today's Bible Readings

ISAIAH 45:1, 4-6

The hand of God works through human decisions and political actions to benefit his people.

Psalm: 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

1 THESSALONIANS 1:1-5b

The Apostle Paul begins his letters to the Thessalonians by commending them for the way in which they are living the faith to which he had introduced them.

MATTHEW 22:15-21

Jesus uses the coin of the realm to make a point about our ultimate allegiance. Governments may control us, but God redeems us.

ENTRANCE RITE – Romans 13:1; Daniel 4:1-14b

V. Let every person be subordinate to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been established by God.

R. The Most High rules over the kingdom of men: He can give it to whom He will.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL – MATTHEW 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

This is the Gospel of the Lord!

100th Anniversary

Mass and Breakfast

Our 100th Anniversary Celebration Last Sunday was a rousing success! Both Prime Bishop Mikovsky and Bishop Nowicki were pleased to be a part of it and they both had a great time. Thanks to everyone who worked so hard to make it such a memorable event. The Mass was beautiful, the Anniversary Booklet turned out great thanks to Joe Seliga, all of the printed materials were wonderful and thanks to Loretta Mikovsky for helping to defray the cost of printing them. And let's not forget how delicious the food was. Michele Ewaskiewicz and Stephanie Baker outdid themselves in making the prize raffle extra special. As my mind fades with age, I apologize in advance if I have forgotten to thank anyone who helped. It was a group effort in the true sense of the word and we should all be thankful to the Lord for helping to make the last 100 years possible and pray that He grants us 100 more.
