Thirtieth Sunday Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

The people who follow God are to be reflections of the divine nature. Because the Lord is loving and merciful, those same qualities must characterize the people who invoke his Name.

About Today's Bible Readings

EXODUS 22:20-26

From the law code of ancient Israel comes the directives of a compassionate God who wishes his people to be compassionate towards the needy.

Psalm: 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

1 THESSALONIANS 1:5c-10

Paul praises the Thessalonians because their faith has become an example leading others to salvation.

MATTHEW 22:34-40

In a response to a trick question about commandments, Jesus gives a simple answer: There is only one law, and it is about love.

ENTRANCE RITE – Deuteronomy 6:5, John 4:21

V. Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength.

R. This is the commandment we have from Him; whoever loves God must also love his brother.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL – MATTHEW 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment.

The second is like it:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

This is the Gospel of the Lord!

Parish Committee Meeting

At last Sunday's special meeting of the parish committee new ways to raise money for the continued operation of our parish were discussed. If you have any ideas please share them with us. It takes not only ideas but people willing to implement them. So please, volunteer to help. The same people who work so hard every time we hold an event cannot be expected to keep doing it alone. And most importantly, if you know of someone looking for a place to worship, please invite them to join us some Sunday. This especially applies to family members, children and grandchildren.

ALL SOULS DAY

All Souls Day falls on Thursday November 2nd this year. We will celebrate it on Sunday, November 5th with prayers offered for the repose of the souls of all of our dearly departed loved ones. Envelopes are on the table in the Narthex if you would like to have the names of your loved ones added to our list. Please give the envelopes to Peggy Kowalik or to Father Don.

Thanksgiving Dinner

Our annual Thanksgiving Dinner is fast approaching. It will be held on Sunday, November 12th. Please hold the date and spread the word.

Thanksgiving Generosity

And let's not forget about those individuals in our community who are less blessed than ourselves. If you are able to donate food, clothing, money or other items to help them as the holiday season begins, please do so. God Bless you all.
