Sixth Sunday of Easter

A Sabbath Thought

Through the Holy Spirit, Christ prepares his church for the mission of proclaiming the reign of God. Today, we respond to the risen Lord's call to be faithful and fruitful disciples.

About Today's Bible Readings

ACTS 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

The first gentile Christians receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, thus showing Peter that God chooses disciples from all nations.

Responsorial Psalm 98:1, 2-3, 3-4

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

1 JOHN 4:7-10

God is love, and love is the measure of our unity with God. God showed love for us by giving his Son for us while we were yet sinners.

JOHN 15:9-17

Jesus commands his disciples to love unselfishly, thus bearing the fruit of that love.

ENTRANCE RITE: Jeremiah 15:16; Acts 2:28

V. When I found Your words, I devoured them; they became my joy and the happiness of my heart. Alleluia.

R. You have made known to me the paths of life; You will fill me with joy in Your presence. Alleluia.

V. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen!

THE GOSPEL (JOHN 15:9-17)

Jesus said to his disciples:

“As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.”
