Second Sunday – Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

At the challenging instigation of his mother, Jesus works the first of his miraculous signs at a wedding in Cana of Galilee. The scene raises a question for us: How can we move God to act in our lives?

About Today's Bible Readings

ISAIAH 62:1-5

The Lord God will be the people's bridegroom, says the prophet, and God's love will work marvelous transformations.

1 CORINTHIANS 12:4-11

The Spirit is the cement that holds together the living stones of Christ's Church.

JOHN 2:1-11

In the sign of abundant wine at a wedding feast, Jesus gives a foretaste of what is to come in the kingdom.

ENTRANCE RITE (JOHN 2:11)

V. Jesus did this as the beginning of His signs in Cana in Galilee and so revealed His glory,

R. And His disciples began to believe in Him.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL: JOHN 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from although the servers who had drawn the water knew, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord!

Annual Parish Meeting

The annual parish congregational meeting will be held on Sunday, February 3, 2019 following the 9:00 AM Mass. The key to success in any democratically oriented organization lies in the participation of the membership. Our parish is facing financial difficulties and your thoughts and ideas on how to solve them are of the utmost importance. Please plan to attend, engage and to elect representatives to the various offices and positions in our parish for the upcoming terms. Our ancestors fought for this right when they founded the PNCC. Please respect it and make use of it by attending and participating.

Blessing of Homes

Please let Father Don know if you would like to have your home blessed during the season of Epiphany this year.

Community Outreach

We are still looking for donations for the less blessed in our community. If you can find it in your hearts to donate non-perishable food items, clothing or money to help, please leave them in the Narthex or see Peggy Kowalik. Coats in all sizes, infant through adults, are still needed. They need not be new, just clean and in good condition. Thank you and may God bless you.
