Fifth Sunday – Ordinary Time

A Sabbath Thought

What's in a name? Our personal names are not only for identification but are also for vocation. We can be called because God knows who we are - by name. God's knowledge of us then becomes our own.

About Today's Bible Readings

ISAIAH 6:1-2a, 3-8

In an encounter with the living God, the prophet Isaiah discovers two things: he is saved, and he is called.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 138:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:1-11

In assuring the Corinthians of the Gospel he preached to them, Paul also outlines the reality of his vocation. God called him from being an enemy of Christ and made him his chief promoter.

LUKE 5:1-11

Like the prophet Isaiah, Peter finds that a meeting with God in the person of Jesus brings personal revelation and professional vocation.

ENTRANCE RITE: Psalm 95:6-7

V. Enter, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the Lord who made us.

R. For this is our God, whose people we are, God's well-intended flock.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL: LUKE 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord!

Annual Parish Meeting

Thanks to all who participated in last Sunday's Annual Membership Meeting. The turnout could have been better, but much work was accomplished. New officers were elected for 2019 and other important decisions were made. May God continue to bless the Church of Our Saviour Parish and all of its members.

Cemetery

If any of you still have wreathes or grave blankets on your cemetery plots please remove them as soon as possible in order for our landscaping service to keep the grounds neat and clean. Thank you in advance for your co-operation.

Coffee Hour

We are in need of donations of decaf coffee and butter for our social/coffee hour that follows Mass each Sunday. If you are able to help, it would be most appreciated.

Sip and Paint

On Sunday, February 24th we will once again be hosting a Sip and Paint Event here in the Fellowship Hall at 2:00 PM. For the very reasonable fee of $25.00 you will receive a canvas and the use of paints and other supplies along with guidance and instructions that will allow you to create a unique work of art. No previous knowledge or skills are required to do this. You are welcome to bring your own food and drinks and light refreshments will be available for purchase. Invite your friends and neighbors to what promises to be a fun time for all. Everyone who attended last year had a great time.

Blessing of Homes

Please let Father Don know if you would like to have your home blessed during the season of Epiphany this year.
