Sixth Sunday of Easter

Welcome Father David!

MEMORIAL DAY
NEVER FORGET!

A Sabbath Thought

Easter is a time to focus on essentials. What matters is God's presence. The risen Christ has brought us the Father's warmth through his Spirit of love.

About Today's Bible Readings

ACTS 15:1-2, 22-29

In an atmosphere of dissension and controversy, Paul reaches out to people who need care. He gives them his presence and urges them to focus on what is essential.

Responsorial Psalm: 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

REVELATION 21:10-14, 22-23

This is what it will be like at the end, says John the seer: a city whose light will be God. What we dream now will be reality then.

JOHN 14:23-29

Be true to my word, says Jesus, and God will dwell in you through the Spirit.

ENTRANCE RITE (Romans 15:13, Ephesians 2:17)

V. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Alleluia.

R. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near. Alleluia.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE GOSPEL JOHN (14:23-29)

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me. “I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, ‘I am going away and I will come back to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord!

Memorial Day

Tomorrow is Memorial Day. A day set aside to honor all the brave men and women who have served, are serving or will serve in the Armed Forces of the United States of America. It is through their sacrifice and honor that we live in peace and freedom every day. Let's not forget them tomorrow or any day, especially those who have made the supreme sacrifice. If you come across a service man or women, thank them for their service and pray for them always.

The Month of May

During the Month of May we give special attention to the Blessed Virgin Mary. We will pray the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary after the Mass each Sunday this month as we beseech the Mother of Our Lord to intercede with the Father and her Beloved Son on our behalf. I urge each of you to spend a few moments each day in reflection, asking for her prayers and remembering her sacrifice.

HELP THE LESS BLESSED

We will be gathering donations of non-perishable food items, clothing or money for distribution to those members of our community who find themselves less blessed than ourselves. Please leave your items in the Narthex or see Peggy Kowalik. Remember that Christ said, "Whatever you do for the least one of my brothers, you do it for Me."

BOOK DRIVE

We will continue to collect books that will be sold during our Annual Flea Market on September 21st and during our breakfasts, dinners and after Mass on Sundays. If you have books at home that you no longer need or want, please bring them in and we will find new homes for them.
