PRAY WITHOUT END: We are called to pray in church and in our daily lives. We are to pray as

St. Paul tells us to pray contently. Which is what the woman does to Jesus in today's Gospel. It may not seem like but that is what she is doing. As parents we know there is nothing we will not do for our children. Especially when they are in need. We are to persist in asking God the Father for what we need.

Although He knows what we need before we ask. But, it does not hurt to present to Him. The woman keeps asking until Jesus granted what she wanted. Do we keep up with our prayer or do we quit when we do not receive? Remember God does not work on the same time scale we do. He gives to us as He sees we need. Keep praying even if it seems there is no answer.
