THE HOLY FAMILY: The Christmas Season is just about over. Today we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. We many times might think that life was easy for them. But it was not. They faced many of the problems that we do, although a bit more. Joseph had to build a home for him and Mary, when it was finished, they had to move to Bethlehem, to be counted for the tax. At the birth of Jesus having some strange visitors come by. Then having to move again because of the king who wanted to kill Jesus. From Egypt back to Nazareth to live. When they went to Jerusalem for Passover only to have Jesus get separated from them. We can take from Joseph and Mary the love they had for each other and Jesus. They are the example of family life. In faith as families, we learn to live with the good and the bad in life. They are the rock for us, staying together in the face of hardships, and joy. We honor them today, though none of us in life are like them. Somewhere in time Joseph died., leaving Mary and Jesus, Joesph never saw the great things Jesus did. We pray that the Holy Family will guard our families.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Please pray for Kelly Seliga, Peter Krause, Louis McGlone.
