REVENGE: When someone hurts us, we think of getting back at them. We are told in both the first reading and repeated by Jesus in the Gospel that we are not to hate anyone. We may have to talk to him to set things straight, but do not grow angry to the point of violence. That is where sin enters in. We are to try to be like God the Father. To be the best person we can, to be as holy as He is holy. This theme is reflected in all of today's readings. We are to try to love one another. We are to look kindly on everyone. Revenge is never the answer. we will alter regret what we have done and maybe loose a friend or relative. Always try to talk it out rather than hitting. Be the bigger person in a dispute, you will look better for it.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Please pray for Kelly Seliga, Peter Krause, Louis McGlone.
