SEEING: Today in the Gospel. Jesus gives sight to the blind man. The question from the disciples is about sin, whose sin, of him or his parents? Jesus says neither, it was to reveal God's love. The man is questioned by the Jewish leaders, but they do not like what he said. As the saying goes, "You cannot see the forest for the trees." They chose not to accept it. They wanted to destroy Jesus, after all he cured on the Sabbath, a day when no work was to be done. We many times look to blame Jesus when things are not right in our life, rather than look at the miracles He works in our life. Because of our faith in Jesus we see the glory of God in all He does. But we look for a reason not to believe. We get the chance to see the beauty in creation and our families. We ought to look for the good and not the bad.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Please pray for Kelly Seliga, Peter Krause, Louis McGlone.
