THE GOOD SHEPERD: The words of our Risen Savior are like the words He spoke to St. Thomas at the Last Supper. Thomas asked where He was going, Jesus told him, "I am the way the truth and the life, no one comes to the Father but through Me." The image of the sheep gate is like that. Jesus says the gate is opened for the shepherd. But not just any shepherd but the chief shepherd, who is Jesus. He is also that gate the sheep pass through and find green pastures. He says others came before Him, but, they were thieves. Before Jesus was born there were many who claimed to be the Messiah, many followed them, only to find they had been misled., we see many of them on TV pretending to preach the Gospel. If we enter through the gate which Jesus opens, we will find peace and life. Do we have to wait until we die to have this? No, if we stay close to Jesus, we can live safe in that life He promises. Jesus is the Good Shepherd He knows His sheep and hopefully we know Him.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Please pray for Kelly Seliga, Peter Krause, Louis McGlone.
