PROTECT THEM: Today we hear Jesus in Jesus in prayer. We are not sure if this was at the table at the Last Super, or while He was praying in the garden. He is praying that God the Father would protect the disciples and us. Jesus also says He has completed the work the Father gave Him. Jesus talks about showing the Father to the disciples that God is God. He told them and us about the Father, and although they may not have fully understood what He said, they would come to know it at the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. He asks the Father to watch over them and us to keep us safe. Jesus also speaks of giving them the Word of God. The truth He made known to them. Through it they and us come to believe that He was sent, to free us from sin and to believe. Jesus is preparing to return to the Father to the glory He had. He prays that we might live in His glory. We have been given a share in that glory, providing we live in faith and remain close to Jesus.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Please pray for Kelly Seliga, Peter Krause, Louis McGlone.
